Living Stories Western Sydney Writing Prize 2023

The Living Stories Western Sydney Writing Prize is a writing competition for residents of Western Sydney and Wingecarribee, and Wollondilly Shire, with an overall prize pool of over $10,000. This is your opportunity to tell your story, responding to the theme the other city. Your poem, story or personal essay will be judged locally, with category winners going on to vie for the overall prize.

Categories are 10 - 12 years; 13 - 15 years; 16 - 18 years; and adults (18+).

Entries close midnight, Sunday 30th April 2023, and can only be submitted online by going to www.westwords.com.au For more information, please contact WestWords on 1800 WESTWORDS or by email: admin@westwords.com.au

Living Stories: The Workshops

Do you have a story to tell? Do you love writing? Do you feel excited when you think about putting words down, and having them really mean something? Does the idea of seeing your name at the top of a page of great writing full of terrific ideas thrill you? Would you like to be able to write better, and to learn from the best?

If you answer yes to any of these questions, then you're in luck, because WestWords and WestLit Libraries, as part of the 2023 Living Stories Western Sydney Writing Prize, are offering free 90-minute creative writing workshops in your area. These workshops are intended to help writers gain confidence and skills in their creative writing, especially with such a large-scale writing prize just around the corner.

The Blue Mountains Library Service will be hosting these workshops for the following age groups. To book please visit: bluemountainslibrary.eventbrite.com.au For further information please get in touch by calling (02) 4780 5750 or via email at bmlibrary@bmcc.nsw.gov.au

Where	Age	Date	Time
Katoomba Library	Ages 10-15	Monday 17 April	11.30am-1pm
Katoomba Library	Ages 16-Adults	Monday 17 April	2pm-3.30pm

Numbers for these free workshops are very limited, so book early. Priority will be given to participants from within the region.

Please note that in the workshops for young people, the content is customised to specific age groups. Please don't book for a different age group without first consulting with the library.

And if you should miss out on these events, all is not lost – WestWords has put together free online workshops for each of the age groups, as well as a poetry workshop, so you will still be able to access tips, advice and inspiring ideas from professional artists.
